Bridges Tour

The City is offering a tour of the bridges before the public meeting. A bus will pick up those interested at 5:00 from the San Gabriel Community Center and be back by 5:50 in time for the public meeting. This will offer an opportunity to talk through some of the enhancements prior to the public meeting. This tour is limited to 23 opportunity to talk through some of the enhancements prior to the public meeting. This tour is limited to 23 people because of the size of the bus. Please send an email to austinave@georgetown.org if you are interested in participating. We will confirm availability in the order that requests are received.

Project Update

As a part of the continued Forensics Evaluation, the City of Georgetown has contracted WJE to perform additional testing and analysis of the bridges. The forensic team will take small samples from the existing steel beams in the bridges to assess material strength and hardness. This will be performed within the next two weeks and is expected to take two days to complete. No traffic closures are needed to perform the work. You may see a “cherry-picker” type machine working from below the bridges. Once the report is complete, the City will share the analysis and findings from the steel testing.

Thank you for your interest in the Austin Ave. Bridges Project.
