

Williams Drive Study Character Areas

Character Areas

- Williams Drive transverses six areas with distinctly different character
- Each area differs in width of pavement, posted traffic speed, and in the use and form of adjacent development
- These characteristics contribute to each area's identity and the experience of visiting, or traveling through it
- Each area was used to designate the different conditions and approach to transportation infrastructure and the way development would interface with Williams Drive

